of mine be done.

Ever ready in Your service, may I always know and do Your holy will in all things. May I remain pure and blameless and be found worthy to be Your servant, and by Your grace may I persevere to the end. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Who wish all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of Your truth: send, we beg You, laborers into Your harvest, and grant them grace to speak Your word with all boldness;

So that Your word may spread and be glorified, and all nations may know You, the only God, and Him Whom You have sent, Jesus Christ Your Son, Our Lord,

Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

St. Tarcisus

Patron saint of altar boys

The moving account of the life of Saint Tarcisus, a young boy who gave his life to protect the Holy Eucharist, was vividly recounted by Pope Benedict XVI when he addressed a gathering of altar servers in Rome in 2010.

Tarcisus lived in the third century under the cruel reign of Emperor Valerian. Historical documents suggest that the emperor, who ruled from 253-260, relentlessly persecuted Christians including ordering the executions of the bishops of Carthage and Rome.

Holy Eucharist had to be delivered secretly, hidden from the Roman guards, at great risk to the bearer.

One day, the priest asked who was prepared to take the Holy Eucharist to the sick. Up stood Tarcisus. "Send me."

Little is known of Tarcisus. It is said he was an acolyte, that is, an altar server. The priest was concerned about sending a young boy for such a dangerous task but Tarcisus persisted, saying: 'My youth will be the best shield for the Eucharist.'

Touched by his bravery, the priest overcame his own doubts and relented. "Tarcisus, remember that a heavenly treasure has been entrusted to your weak hands," the priest said.

"Avoid crowded streets and remember that holy things must never be thrown to dogs nor pearls to pigs." He asked the young altar server if he would guard the sacred mysteries faithfully and safely. "I would die," Tarcisus replied without hesitation, "rather than let go of them."

Along the way, he was met by some young friends who asked him to join them in their play. Suspicious at his stubborn refusal, the young pagans noticed he was clutching something to his breast as if it were precious treasure.

Prayers

Altar Server's Prayer Before Serving Holy Mass

Open my mouth, O Lord, to bless your Holy Name.
Cleanse my heart from all evil and distracting thoughts.
Enlighten my understanding and inflame my will that I may serve more worthily at your holy Altar.

O Mary, Mother of Christ the High Priest, obtain for me the most important grace of knowing my vocation in life.
Grant me a true spirit of faith and humble obedience so that I may ever behold the priest as a representative of God and be willing follow him in the Way, the Truth, and the Life of Christ. Amen.

Prayer to St. Tarcisus (Patron Saint of Altar Boys)

O God, You have graciously called me to serve You at Your Altar. Grant me the graces that I need to serve You faithfully and wholeheartedly. Grant too that while serving You, may I follow the example of St. Tarcisus, who died protecting the Eucharist, and walk the same path that led him to Heaven. St. Tarcisus, pray for me and for all servers.

Altar Server's Prayer of Thanksgiving After Holy Mass

O Lord, Jesus Christ, Eternal High Priest, I thank You for the privilege of having served at the holy altar of Your sacrifice. Now, as I put aside the garments of that service, I ask that I may at all times think of You, and always act accordingly, as a privileged altar server.

May I ever seek You and find You; may I always follow You; may Your priestly spirit be my guide, and Your service of love be my example. May Your Holy Name always be on my lips, and to Your praise and glory may every work

Rules to Learn, Remember and Follow

- Remember that you have the opportunity to teach others by your example of reverence and attention at Mass. People are watching you, so give them a good example!
- When you are serving Mass you ought to participate by saying, chanting, or singing the appropriate prayers and responses in a reverent manner.
- There is to be absolute silence in the Sanctuary and Sacristy unless you have a pressing question to ask either a Knight or Father.
- If you cannot pay attention or refrain from goofing off, please do not serve that day.
- You should not be in the Sacristy during Mass unless you have a particular job that needs to be done at that very moment.
- There should never be any horseplay in the Church building.
- You must be dressed appropriately to serve. No exceptions.
- Remember, you are obligated to keep the Eucharistic fast—which means no food or drink—except water—for at least an hour before receiving Holy Communion. This means no chewing gum.
- Follow the directions of the priests, deacons, and Knight Commanders.
- Any altar boy who criticizes the way another boy serves or in any way acts uncharitably toward a fellow server risks having his privileges to serve taken away.
- It is the Knight's job to correct any mistakes, but always with charity and kindness.
- If you cannot serve at your assigned Mass, please contact a replacement.

They jumped on him and brutally attacked him to find out what he was protecting with his life. Realizing he was a Christian, their attacks grew more ferocious. They kicked him, they threw stones at him but he was unbowed.

When he was close to death, a Praetorian guard who had secretly become Christian, intervened and carried the dying boy back to the priest. Sadly, Tarcisus was already dead by the time they arrived. But he was still clutching a small linen bag which contained the Holy Eucharist.

Tarcisus was immediately buried in the catacombs of St Calixtus.

Based on an inscription on his grave ordered by Pope Damasus, Tarcisus died in 257. There is an oral tradition, says Pope Benedict, which claims that the most Blessed Sacrament was never found on St Tarcisus' body - either in his hands or in his clothing.

This, tradition has it, means that the consecrated Host, which the little martyr had defended with his life, had become flesh of his flesh, thereby forming, together with his body, a single immaculate host offered to God.

Pope Benedict said the life of St Tarcisus reminds us that love can make us give our lives for an authentic good.

Throughout His public ministry, The Lord Jesus invited and accepted the cooperation of many people, including the young. Among those who helped Jesus was a young boy, who provided five loaves of bread and two fish, which Jesus used to perform a miracle, anticipating the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist (see John 6:1-14).

The Knights of the Altar continue this spirit of service to Christ.

Serving at the altar of God is a great privilege, and this manual will help you to learn the responsibilities, expectations and procedures of the Knights of the Altar.

Dress Code

Mass is not routine. The altar boy's appearance should reflect this. Our posture, silence, and even our clothing reflect our understanding of the holiness of the Mass.

- Hair should be clean, combed, and neatly cut.
- Hands and fingernails should be clean. Your hands will touch the sacred objects used for Mass.
- Boys should wear long pants of a dark color.
- Black dress shoes are required. Tennis shoes, sandals, flip-flops, etc... are not permitted.
- Socks should be dark and long enough to cover the ankles and lower legs. Anklets are not permitted.
- Boys are discouraged from wearing any type of jewelry (rings, watches, bracelets) while serving.

Any one who does not observe the dress code will not be allowed to serve that day, even if they are scheduled.

Scheduling and Punctuality

Normally, at least five servers will be scheduled for Sunday Mass, together with at least one Knight Commander. Parents may indicate the Masses at which their sons may be scheduled. Servers may always volunteer to serve Mass, even if they are not scheduled.

Please be in the sacristy at least fifteen minutes before Mass.

Care of Vesture

Servers should always hang-up their cassocks, surplices, and albs carefully after Mass. Coat hangers, jackets, and other personal items may not be left out in the sacristy. Vesture will be washed by parents on a rotating basis. Bleach should never be used on these vestments.

System of Promotion

The Knights of the Altar are boys and young men, between the ages of seven and twenty-one, who have made a special commitment to leadership and service. The knights of the Altar undergo more rigorous training than other servers, and they are expected to exercise greater responsibility among their fellow servers.

The Knights of the Altar program provides for various ranks of service, each of which requires a correspondingly higher level of skill and responsibility. Servers move through the ranks based upon their personal efforts and abilities. The rank system ensures that each Knight is highly trained and confident in carrying out his duties.

The Ranks of the Knights of the Altar are:

Apprentice. The altar server begins at the rank of Apprentice. It is open to boys seven years of age (second grade) and older. At this stage, the boy will participate in Mass as an observer. In time, the Apprentice will begin to assume some of the simpler duties of the altar server, under the guidance of the Knight Commanders. The apprenticeship lasts at least three months.

- The vesture of an Apprentice is the white alb and cincture.

Knight. After a period of service as an Apprentice, the server may be invited to become a Knight. Promotion to the rank of Knight is open to boys nine years of age (fourth grade) or older, who have been Apprentices for at least three months, and who have fulfilled their duties with responsibility.

- The vesture of a Knight is the black cassock and surplice.

Knight Commander. After having served as a Knight for at least one year, a Knight may be promoted to the rank of Knight Commander. This rank is open to boys in sixth grade or above who have shown exceptional dedication and competence in the performance of their duties. Punctuality, personal neatness, and generosity in serving Masses on special occasions are critical factors in promotion to the rank of Knight Commander.

- The vesture of a Knight Commander is the black cassock, surplice and bronze badge of office worn on a black ribbon around the neck.

Senior Knight Commander. After serving for at least two years as a Knight Commander, a Knight may be promoted to Senior Knight Commander. These servers will be given the first chance to serve on special occasions such as Holy Week and Easter, Christmas, and Confirmation.

- The vesture of a Senior Knight Commander is the black cassock, surplice and silver badge of office worn on a red ribbon around the neck.

Master Knight. Up to three Senior Knight Commanders may be designated as Master Knights. They will serve as Masters of Ceremonies for important liturgical celebrations. Promotion to this rank is limited to experienced servers who are in High School.

This office includes responsibility for training servers (both the Guild and the Knights), and leading the corps of altar boys. The Master Knights will also assist in coordinating special practices for Christmas and Holy Week, and in helping to plan social events.

- The vesture of the Grand Knight is the red cassock, surplice and gold badge of office worn on a red and gold ribbon around the neck.
